Dear Willie:

I had expected to see or hear from you before now. Most of the ballplayers start writing in the late winter, so they can make their plans. I guess you have been like the rest a little afraid of the manpower situation. I think the Washington ruling cleared that up.

I am writing to find out if you are planning to play this season. If so what salary you expect. You know you did not hit the ball last year, which is a drawback for a catcher.

We are training in Richmond again this year, and plan to go to camp April 1st. We open the league season here in Newark May 6th.

I will be looking to hear from you as soon as possible. I hope your family is well, and you the same.

Very Truly Yours
